Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Daniel W. Boyd has devoted over 36 years of service to the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Dan has dedicated his career to helping and serving the citizens of this state as an employee of the Department of Education; and,

Whereas, Dan's loyalty, good nature, and friendship will not be forgotten by the Department of Education's State Library staff, and the many others who have worked with him over the years; and,

Whereas, Dan has a love of fishing, and is a master at keeping up with Sally as she continues to think up new projects; and,

Whereas, Dan has decided to retire and will now have more time to spend with his wife, Sally, their family, and the many people he has taken under his wing over the years; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments and years of service of this outstanding South Dakotan:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 23, 2008, as in South Dakota, and I join his colleagues, family, and friends in offering him best wishes for a healthy, happy, and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of October in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eight.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
